NEW YORKS WIN THEIR THIRD STRAIGHT FROM THE BROOKLINS. This Time, However, St. Louis Defeats Pittsburg, so That Hanion's Men Still Lead by a Small Margin - Philadelphia Defeats Boston and Chicago Outpoint: Cincinnati. Fortunately for the Brooklyns the Pittsburgs were temporarily stopped in their upward flight yesterday. While the champions were losing heir third straight game to the New Yorks the Smoky City would-be pennant winners were beaten by St. Louis in a game that was decided by a run. As a result Hanlon's men have a lead of 17 points, which is a margin for homerooters to feel afraid of. If Pittsburg had won yesterday Brooklyn's lead would have been reduced to 9 points. The Philadelphias took a close game from the Bostons, whose fight for third place appears to be hopeless. The Chicagos outpointed the Cincinnatis with a around. Incidentally the magnates, for some single tally to spare. The Reds, by the way, are in danger of tumbling into last place, as the New Yorks are but 8 points behind them. The results:

New York, 6; Brooklyn, 5. Philadelphia, 5; Boston, 4. St. Louis, 7; Pittsburg. 6. Chicago, 5; Cincinnatt, 4.

THE RECORD. NEW YORK, 6, BROOKLYN, 5.

There was another session of kicking at the Polo grounds yesterday afternoon. Capt. Kelley and his Brooklyn players were very much in evidence in that line. Capt. Davis of the New Yorks also had his little say, with the result that Umpire Snyder had another warm time. Snyder, under the rules, could have put Kelley, Dahlen, DeMontreville and Davis out of the game. Kelley, in the eighth inning betine gains me so enraged at a strike called on him that a actions caused be Montreville to throw a ten the air. After Kelley had flied to van altren and was out, he turned to Snyder and "Why don't you quit and get out of the businyder took this and never said a word. It Snyder took this and never said a word. It was his place, however, to put Kelley out of the same. In the third inning, when Sheckard interfered with Murphy in trying for a double play, Davis rushed at Snyder like a bull and said: "Get in the same. Don't start off again." Davis argued fully three minutes and should have been put off.

There were two accidents in the same, which

There were two accidents in the game, which fortunately did not result in serious injuries. In the first inning Keeler ran into Doyle at first base and knocked him out. It took some time to bring lack to. He retired in the fifth inning in favor of Grady. Hickman was hit on the head by a ritched ball in the fourth inning and was knocked flat on his back. The players from both teams rushed to him and it was thought by many that he was seriously injured. He, however, pluckly resumed play after a rest of five minutes.

injured He, however, pluckly resumed play after a rest of five minutes

The New Yorks won the game in the fourth inning, chiefly because of Pitcher Donovan's wildness and the failure of Manager Hanlon to take him out in time. Selbach started off with a three-bagger. Hickman got his base by being hit by a pitched ball Bernard scratched a hit over third base, which Sheckard tried hard to get, Selbach scoring. Cross made a beautiful catch of Doyle's liner. Davis singled, filling the bases. It was clearly seen here that beautiful catch of Doyle's liner. Davis singled, filling the bases. It was clearly seen here that Doneyan was rattled and should have been taken out. He gave Murchy his base on buils, forcing in Hickman. Still Hanlon with Kennedy and Howell on the bench kept Donovan in. Bowerman got in a neat sacrifice and Bernard scored. Hawley struck out. Van Hailren got his base on balls, forcing in Davis and still Hanlon kept Donovan in the box. Selbach came up for the second time and he also got his base on balls, forcing in Murchy. Hickman went out on a fly to Dahlen. Hanlon then put Kennedy in and he had the New York's completely at his mercy. The New York's scored their other nercy The New Yorks scored their other in the second inning. Bernard got his base alls, took second on a wild pitch and scored on Doyle's single.

The (hampions got two runs in the third inning without making a hit. Jones got his base on balls. Keeler was hit by a pitched ball.
Both scored on a wild throw of Murphy. In the sixth they got a man around the base on Kelley's bunt. De Montr ville's sacrifice and Cross's two-bagger. In the ninth two more were scored on three hits, two outs and an error. The PRESIDENT YOUNG TO GO. League Magnates Have Decreed That There Must Be a New Chief Executive.

N. E. Young, President of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs for a decade, is to be removed from office before another championship season begins. Several of the leading magnates have decreed that "Uncle Nick" must go and that some hustling successor must take up the reins. This announcement, which is made upon the authority of a man who is conversant with League politics, following as it does the open criticism of Young levelled by C. H. Ebbets of the Brooklyn club, will not surprise those who have watched matters closely during the past two years. President Young has had no end of trouble with the umpfre staff. Fault has been found with him for his appointments and assignmenis, so much so that the League magnates decided last winter to elect the umpires themselves and then allow Young to parcel them peculiar reason, refused to elect the best umpire of them all, Thomas J. Lynch, and two club owners promptly barred Timothy Hurst from their grounds, the moment a majority of the magnates selected him. The two objectors to Hurst were Freedman and Brush, with the result that Hurst has not umpired a game this year in which the New Yorks or Cincinnatis have taken part. Later on Dreyfuse of Pittsburg barred Hurst from his ball park and so did one other club owner. It is an undentable fact that a majority of players in the National League to-day pronounce Lynch and Hurst the most competent umpires in the country, yet by the action of the magnates themselves, President Young has been seri-ously handicapped in regard to these two men. Another point in Young's favor is the refusal of the magnates to restore the double umpire system this year in the face of an almost unanimous request from the players, public and press. But for economical reasons and narrowmindedness, Young would have been allowed to have eight regular umpires at his disposal instead of four. The single umpire plan has instead of four. The single umpire plan has been clearly shown to be a failure, and no competent baseball critic has pronounced it otherwise. There has been more kicking and flighting over umpires' decisions this year than last season, which is further proof that the two-men system has been missed. So it can be seen that young's hands have been tied considerably by the men who now seek to dismiss him. On the other hand several magnates have charges to make against the League's President that are expected to cause his removal. It is alieged that he has snown poor judgment in appointing men to vacancies and in seneduling them for various series of more than ordinary importance. Ebbets of Brooklyn is the first to accuse Young of incompetently assigning his umpires. Ebbets wants to know, for instance, why such a competent man as O'Day is sent to Pittsburg while Snyder and Gafney are sent to washington Park to umpire for the Brooklyns. Ebbets also asks why Emsle, another first-class umpire, is sent to judge the unlimportant Chicago-Cincinnati series instead of working here. Huist has been umpaing the Boston-Philadelphia games because the New York club's President has objected to him, but as far as Capt. Davis and the New York players are concerned Hurst would be more acceptable to them at any time than Snyaer. James A. Hart, the Chicago magnate, is created with being the ring leaser in the crusace against Young. He has a celared that the Longue's President of the very progressive American League, but it is doubtful whether Johnson wouls accept Young's berth. Freeman, eclared himself to be opposed to Young two years ago, so that it is believed that Brush and So en may be persua ec to look at the matter in a shadar light. Young was in Cinbeen clearly shown to be a failure, and no com-

any So en may be persuared to look at the matter in a similar light. Young was in cincinnati yester any conferring with Brush, who appears to hold the veteran's fate in his han s. Commit of the Boson club is roung's friend. Soden, too, has stood by him through thick and thin. Reach and Rogers of the Philadeiphia club have also been loval to "Unie Nick" in all his troubles, but even they, it is suid, have been turned against him. When A. O. Spalding was actively interested in haseball he was with Young tooth and nail, for Spalding believes to-day that there is no more honest or faithful official than the man who has been the Lague's chief executive for years.

It is not the intention of the magnates, so they say, to throw Young aside without a reward for his long labors. They want to "retire" him with a pendion of sufficient magnitude to keep him comfortable the rest of his life. But the magnates are noted for talking, not acting P. T. Powers, the President of the Eastern League, is talked of as a candidate for the office, together with Ebbets and a Boston man who has plusged the game of certain magnates to the limit.

The men had considerable trouble in coming to an agreement as to Gana's weight, but it was family settled that the colored boy should not scale more than 133 pounds at the ringside. This part having been agreed upon they began discussing where the contest should be pulled off. Herford and Harris would like to have it take place in this city, but Gans is averse to flighting here. So that part of the agreement was left unset-tled.

PRINCETON, Sept. 22 .- The candidates for the football team at Princeton University had their first scrimmage of the season this afternoon. Two teams were selected by Capt Pell and the hour was spent in practi-ing offensive tactics, although no regular playing could be done on account of the repeated interruption of the coa ches. The entire coaching staff, composed of Lea, Balliet, arthur Poe, Nat Poe, and Bergen, the old half back, followed the two elevens down the field, watching closely every move of the men. The 'Varsity, of course, was the centre of attraction for the undergraduates as well as the coaches.

Both were lace! opposite experienced men, but as they were not allowed to rush much in going through the formations no chance was offered to get a he on the ratility. The placing of Losey, the big sophomore, at centre was a surprise, but it is expected that Dana, last year's guard, will be found in the place when the regular lineaus begin next week. Homer Hillebrand, a brother of the famous Princeton athlete, entered college to-day. He is a crack end, but will not be able to play football this fail on account of a week knee. He reported for the freshman baseball team this afternoon and those who have seen him on the diamond say that he is a better player than his brother. Another brother, who is also an athlete, entered the Princeton preparatory school to-day, where he will prepare for the university.

for the university.

ITHACA, Sept. 22.—Capt. Starbuck's countenance wore a broad smill after the practice was over to-night, and the cause of this smills was the fact that the thing be had most desired had come about, namely, that several big candidates had come out to try for the line of his football team. Hunt, 'O4, who weighs over 250, and who was a star on the St. Paul School's team at Garden City, was one of the new candidates. Another one was Kinney, 'O4, of the Lawrencoville team. Kinney weighs 180. Yornels, 'O4, who weighs 180, and comes from the University School at Cleveland, where Cornell gets many of her good athletes, was another newcomer. Other promising heavy men from the entering class were Pierce and Busanan, from the Albion High School. The men lined up to-day for the first scrimmage, but with the idea of allowing the backs to learn the straight plays better rather than to give the line men any work. Accordingly, the men were lined up at random and there was no separation into first and second. Varsity teams. George Young, quarter back of last year's team, was on the field and will remain to assist in the coaching for a week. Young said that he never saw so fine a lot of candidates out so early in the season. early in the season

PHILADELPHIA. Sept. 22.—No football practice was taken to-day, as Coach Woodruff wishes to have all the men in good condition to begin the hard practice which will take place next week. Not one of the men has an thing the matter with him excepting McMahon and Scarlett, who collided on Thursday, the consequence being a few bruises. They should be in good share by Monday. By the way, the above McMahon is not the one who played en Pennsylvania's team early last season and then ratired owing to injuries. On Tuesday or Wednesday the weeding out process will begin. Then Coach Woodruff will dismiss played en Pennsylvania's team early last season and then ratired owing to injuries. On Tuesday or Wednesday the weeding out process will begin they are to be seen those players who have not shown up sufficiently well in the practice to date to merit their referrition on the Varsity squad. The present number of cendidates is altogether too large to be workable, and it will be cut down to about one-half its present proportions, or to about thirty.

New Haven, Sept. 22.—There was a new player in the Yale rush line this afternoon eleven of 1803. Bloomer made a reputation at Andover, and his coming to Yale has been much heralded. He has been her for several days, but this was the first time he has been in the oractice. He had a few minutes instruction at the tackle kufferty, the end rush of the Andover eleven of last fall, who played alongside of Bloomer, is also here, but has not ye begun work. The practic this afternoon lasted over an hour and was harder than on any previous day. When the team lines up again on Monday Malcolm McBride will be here. If will be head coach and will remain here with the team throughout the season.

BRANFORD POINT, Sept. 22—The Columbia footb. If team lived up for their first serim age this morning. The team was made up as follows:

Handleap for All Ages Goes to Star Bright - Four Favorites Unexpectedly Beaten. All conditions favored the racing at Gravesend yesterday. Weather, track, entries and attendance were alike good and the sport was interesting throughout. It was an expensive outing for the talent, however, as only two favorites pulled through, but some of the plungers, including Pittsburg Phil, profited largely, especially in the Occidental. This was a handicap for all ages, with $1,500 added, at one mile and a furlong, and although Imp was heavily weighted she went to the post a slight favorite over Belle of Troy. J. E. McDonald and his many racing and political friends played the Fonso mare. Jack Point and Charentus also found a following, but the heavy money poured in at the last moment on Pink Coat and his price dropped from 6 to 1 to 4 to 1. Imp drew the outside position and had to hustle from the start to head off Jack Point Having secured her favorite position, the old mare looked like a winner, but the lightweights kept worrying winner, but the lightweights kept worrying her and on the long turn for home she dropped out of the game suddenly. At this stage Hardly showed in front for a moment, but Pink Coat, then came along and settled the argument, winning out in a drive by a length and a half from Jack Point, who took the place by three lengths from Charentus. The latter outstayed Hardly and beat her a head. The time was within four-fifths of a second of Don de Oro's track record.

lengths from Charentus. The latter outstayed Hardly and beat her a head. The time was with in four-fifths of a second of Don de Oro's track record.

The Flatlands Stakes of $2,000 for two-year olds attracted ten aspirants with Col. Padden a pronounced choice on recent form. He left the mark with his customary burst of speed and won all the way. Autolight and kimberly forced him to a drive in the stretch and the three crossed the line at half-length intervals. There was a quiet tip in circulation about J. E. Seagram's Masetto colt Basuto, but he got pinned on the fence and Burns could not get him through.

The afternoon's sport opened with a big surprise, as Godfrey at 20 to 1 slipped his field and lasted long enough to win out in a head finish from Pupil and I leber Karl. Plungers burned their fingers budly over Sadducce and made maters worse by selecting Autumn to win the handcap for all ages, at one mile and 70 yards. John E. Madden's Star Bright at the liberal odds of 7 to 1 tipted his field after the first furlong and came home haif a length in front of King Barleycorn, who wore down the favorite in the stretch and beat him three parts of a length in the drive for place honors. The time hung out for star Bright represented a new track record for the distance, the previous figures being 1:45 1-3, made by the three-year-old Merito, with 87 pounds up last May.

Fifteen two-year-olds made up the graduating class in the fifth race, and the good thing was supposed to be Isla, a colt by Tammany. He was played so heavily by the Sullivanites and other loyal Tammany sportemen that the books cut his original odds of 6 to 1 in half. Isla made a gailant attempt to bring home the goods but he weakened in the drive and the honors went to The Rhymer by half a length, while Sharpshooter secured the place by a length from Templeton. Isla finished within a neck of show money. The winner is the colt that has been the subject of recent litigation between his owner and trainer. He was carried away from Brighton Beach a couple of RIVERSIDE Y. C. REGATTA Altair Defeats Husser in a Strong Northwesterly Wind.

The Riverside Yacht Club of Riverside, Conn., brought a very successful season to a close yesterday with a regatta for classes fifty-one eet and under. The races were sailed in a strong northwesterly wind and many of the yachts put in double reefs before starting out. harles P. Tower, the chairman of the Regatta Committee, was on hand early and during the race he was assisted by L. D. Post. The committee used the tug Stamford and after sending the yachts off followe I them over the course. The 51-foot sloops, Altair and Hussar, met for the last time this season. The Altair let at the start and drew away from the Hussar on each leg of the course, winning the race easily. They sailed a 25-mile triangle, the first leg of which was a starboard reach. They gybed at the first mark and reached along the Long Island shore as far as Eaton's Point and then The Eurybia and Vorant sailed a match race. The Vorant was entered in the name race. The Vorant was entered in the name of John F. Teson, the twelve-year-old son of Commodore Tyson. The yacht has been given to the boy by his father and the new owner was very much pleased at winning the race. The Eurybia finished first, but the Vorant won time allowance.

The Cymbra started out for a sailover, but

The Cymbra started out for a sailover, but when going along the south shore she lost ther mast in one of the strong puffs and had to be towed in by the steamer Florence. In the 30-foot class Alfred Peat's Enpronzi won. She led at the start and gained considerably, while the Alerich and Kit were indulging in a lufting match. The Alerich broke her eppeader and had to withdraw and the Kit was beaten nearly nine minutes by the Enpronzi. The catbeat Windora had a sailover owing to C. T. Pierce of the Dot mistaking the signals. In the raceabout class the Sis wen, as the Raider did not finish. It was just the weather that suits the Sis and she railed very fast. The Rochelle won again, and in the 21-foot catboat class the Vagabond beat the Win or Lose. The table follows: SLOOPS-CLASS R, 43 TO 51 PEET-START. 1:10

Nearly $2,000 Raised for Galveston Sufferers -Fitz's Horseshoe Brings $701.

An entertaining programme of light harness racing, arranged by the Road Drivers' Association, was seen at the Empire City track yesterday afternoon, and the sufferers by storm and flood at Galveston will receive nearly $2,000. The crowd was not very large, but it made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers. The most sensational feature of the day was the sale of a horseshoe, made by Pugilist Robert Fitzsimmons at the Guttenburg track on Friday, for $701. Mayor Alexander Harbison of Hartford, who was the starting judge, invited bids for the horseshoe. One occupant of the grand stand shouted $25, but he was quickly placed in the background by A. B. Gwathmey of the Cotton Exchange, who bid $100. Frank Carroll of Fiss, Doerr & Carroll rushed down into the crowd and took a hand in the contest by bid-

Fixchange, who bid $100. Frank Carroll of Fiss, Doerr & Carroll rushed down into the crowd and took a hand in the contest by bidding $175. Mr. Gwathmey raised it to $200 and Mr. Carroll came back with $250. The shoe was knocked down to him.

Without a moment's hesitation Mr. Carroll mounted the steps to the judges' stand and stated that he would donate the shoe to the good cause, and called for bids. Mr. Gwathmey secured the shoe for $100. He called to Mr. Harbison to auction it off again, but several of the former's friends seized him by the arms, escorted him to the stand, and insisted on his assuming the role of auctioneer. Fred Gerken got it for $50. He is turn climbed the steps and asked for bids. knocking it down to James P. Robertson for $50. Former Park Commissioner Samuel McMillan was the next purchaser at $50, and Mrs. McMillan became the next owner at $100. No one seemed inclined to raise that bid and it was thought the horseshoe would remain the property of Mrs. McMillan. It was put up again, however, after a heat in one of the races had been trotted, and it was knocked down to Isaac Honner for $101.

It required three heats to decide the 2.20 trot. George P. Baisley's bay mare Hazel from Westchester won the first heat in a close finish with A. C. Mayward's W. C. F. Then she pulled up slightly lame and the Maynard gelding had no trouble in winning the next two heats.

W. J. Clark of Yonkers drove the chestnut mare Marion her first race in the 2.35 pacing dash. The mare was driven about the streets of Yonkers hocked to be. Frank Bower's Philadelphia feam, King Henry and John P. Stewart, won in straight heats, and lengths ahead. Saratoga Belle and Marian Wilkes, L. Whitehead's team, driven by Jack Curry, acted poorly and made costly breaks. Aiter they had gone two or three times around Curry sent them an exhibition mile in 2.19. Isaac A. DEATH OF WILLIAM WOOD.

One of the Oldest Athletes in the Country, He Coached Yaie's Early Crews.

William Wood, one of the oldest and best known athletes of the country, died at his residence 203 Lenox avenue on Thursday night He was 86 years old and has long been familiariy known as the "Grandfather of athletics" in this country. He was born in this city, and after receiving his early education in the public schools, went to Yale College where he was graduated. From the time he left Yale until his death he was more or less actively engaged in the pursuit of athletics. He made a reputation as a professional oarsman soon after leaving college, and out of fifty-four starts he won forty-eight races. Yale crews received the benefit of his instruction in the early days of benefit of his instruction in the early days of college rowing and from 1854 to 1856 inclusive, he coached the wearers of the blue.

He founded the first gymnasium ever built in New York. It was on Crosby street, and was called Wood & Attington's "Gym." When a gymnasium was established in the Twenty-third Street Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association Mr. Wood was employed to superintend its organization, and later to become head instructor in it. He held that position for thirty years, having, during that time. 75,000 pupils.

Fourteen years ago he set up a sporting goods store at 23 and 25 West 125th street. Since then he has discensed each season technical advice on all manner of outdoor games, and the proorfetor of the place long ago came to be an authority to whom the athletes of Harlem schools relied for decisions on the rules of open air diversions.

He leaves one son, who says that his father died of a broken heart, having never recovered from the grief following Mrs. Wood's death thirteen months ago. The funeral services will be held at the family residence to-day.

N. Y. A. C. Athletes Win Most of the Primes in Canadian Championships.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22 .- No records were broken at the seventeenth annual championship meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union which was held on the M. A. A. grounds this afternoon. Owing to a rainstorm in the morning the track was in heavy condition and did not permit of fast time. Several thousand perwas represented by M. W. Long, John Flansgan, W. D. Hennen, A. Z. Newton, Alexander Grant and I. K. Baxter. R. F. Alexander Grant and I. K. Baxter, R. F. Hutchinson of the Princeton A. A., and H. P. McDonald of Brooklyn were also entered. The New York men carried off the honors. Of the twelve events on the card they captured eight first prizes, four second and onthird. Long won the 100, 220 and 440-yard runs. Grant won the one nille and half-nille runs. Baxter was first in the running high jump and Flanagan won in throwing the 56-pound weight and the 16-pound hammer. Summaries:

The prize list for the sixth annual exhibition of the Horse Show Association of Orange County is most liberal. Entries closed last night, and Secretary George A. Elston reports that so far as he has been able to jurge they will exceed in number and character the entry list of any previous exhibition. Special prizes are offered by Mrs. W. M. V. Hoffman, Goorge E. Douge, J. W. Doane, C. H. C. Beakes, E. H. Harriman, John J. McCarty, Gen. B. F. Tracy, Mrs. E. H. Harriman, R. T. Wilson, Contad Henri Kohsel and others. The exhibition will be held at Goshen Driving Park on Oct. 6.

Union Boat Club's Regatta.

gatta of the Union Boat Club, held on the Harlem River yesterday, that two of the events had to be rowed in heats, and darkness came on before their was a chance to bring the crews to the line for the finals of the double gig and four gigs. These will be decided to-day. All the contests were open only to members, and the eight-oared shell race demonstrated how much racing large number of five crews turned out. Though boats were borrowed from different clubs, the men were all dressed in the neat colors of the then lined up for the start near Madison avenue bridge.

The finish was opposite the club float, making the course about five-eightins of a mile. There was some delay at the start of the big race, owing to the presence of an unwiedy tow on the course, and when the crews got the word the inside one, stroked by W. Regers, was under way so quickly that it led the others a length and a half. This was increased by four lengths at the finish. The race for second place was one of the best ever seen on the river. Maurice Cornell's crew drew slightly away from the others at half distance, but in the hist soe, was finish won by less than a quarter of a length from Cornell's crew. A dead heat resulted in the second trial heat of the junior four-oared gize evert. The summary:
